Do you give online access to your collection on a website and would like to increase visibility of your materials by making them searchable through the European Film Gateway alongside collections of other European film archives and cinémathèques? Or would you like your digital collections be searchable through Europeana? Get in touch with us via efg(at)deutsches-filminstitut.de and we'll be happy to provide you with all necessary information. We're looking forward to hearing from you.
